HOLME PIERREPONT HALL

NOTTINGHAM

'We had such a wonderful day. Everyone loved the reception venue; the hall and the grounds created the perfect backdrop to photographs'

– Sarah and Duncan

THE EAST GARDEN

THE MEDIAEVAL LODGINGS

'The setting was absolutely fantastic and contributed greatly to the most perfect day of our lives.'

– Kevin and Louise Delapena

THE LONG GALLERY

THE HALLWAY

A photograph of a formal garden. In the foreground, there are several large, spherical purple flowers on tall stems. Behind them are rows of low, manicured hedges in shades of green and yellow. In the middle ground, there are clumps of tall, green grasses. To the left, a classical column stands on a pedestal. In the background, a building with a large arched window and hanging plants is visible. The scene is brightly lit, suggesting a sunny day.

THE GRADE II LISTED
